Expertise

Her expertise encompasses an array of family law areas, evidenced by the fact that she is regularly instructed by parents in enmeshed and protracted Children Act proceedings. Haylee is also popular choice with Guardians in difficult and serious matters representing children. Such cases involve non-accidental injury including "baby shaking" cases, infant death and sexual and physical abuse.

Haylee regularly appears in all tiers of court in matters of financial remedy and is frequently instructed by high net worth individuals for her client focused approach and pragmatism.

She is said by solicitors to be 'robust in court,' she 'understands the clients' needs' and is 'thorough in preparation'.

Haylee's interests include cooking, gardening and Oriental art.
