Experience

Having substantial experience as a Barristers' Clerk for more than 20 years followed by five years running his own procurement business, Russell works directly with the Head of Chambers in respect of the administration and strategic development of chambers.

Russell's responsibilities include business development, financial management, marketing, regulatory compliance, premises and facilities, IT, tendering and procurement and working with chambers' people and partners to ensure the highest levels of service are consistently maintained.

Outside the office Russell is an avid Arsenal supporter, runner, father and loves to cook very hot curries!
