About

Raminder Khasriya is Direct Access qualified and regularly accepts instructions in Private Law proceedings, assisting parents in complex Child Arrangement cases. She provides expert representation and advice in fact-finding and final hearings, particularly where there are serious allegations of domestic abuse, parental alienation, or unjustified restriction of contact.

Raminder's practice is dedicated to proceedings concerning children. Her caseload is predominantly comprised of public law care proceedings, reflecting her commitment to this area of law.

Raminder's journey in child protection law spans over ten years. Before joining chambers, she was an in-house Solicitor- Advocate for a busy local authority legal team in Berkshire. Her decision to transition to the Bar in March 2020 is a testament to her dedication and growth in the field.

Practice overview

Raminder is exceptionally skilled in representing local authorities, parents and guardians, in cases where there are complex and severe issues arising out of:

Sexual abuse
Non- accidental injuries
Neglect
Domestic abuse
Adoption
Disputes out of contact
Special Guardianship Orders
Forced Marriage Protection Orders
Applications in the High Court for Deprivation of Liberty Orders

When representing local authorities, Raminder benefits from a detailed understanding of the internal procedures and protocols. She is recognised for her ability to understand and meet client expectations. Equally, when representing parents, Raminder is recognised as a kind and caring individual who does the best for all her clients and does everything she can to win the case for them. She has extensive experience in representing vulnerable clients who are assisted by the Official Solicitor.

Client Testimonials

'I just wanted to write to you to say Raminder has provided LBR with excellent service. Since I began instructing Raminder in August of this year, I have found her fantastic with the clients, her management of difficult parties and her rep as counsel of the LA has been exceptional.

I have commended her skills to my colleagues.

I look forward to closely working with Raminder from here onwards.' Bahia Daifi, LBR
