About

Isabelle Watson is the Head of Chambers. She is a qualified Family (Children) arbitrator and a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCI Arb). Chambers and Partners UK ranked Isabelle Watson in band 3 for Family—children for the second year.

Practice overview

Isabelle specialises in complex public and private law cases and acts for local authorities, parents and children in severe cases involving murder, sexual abuse, fabricated illness, parental alienation and serious physical harm.

Isabelle also has well-established expertise in cases involving allegations of non-accidental injury, neglect, child fatalities and emotional abuse. Much of Isabelle's work now involves cases with parallel criminal proceedings and complex medical issues.

Isabelle is a Trainer for expert witnesses and the Middle Temple advocacy programme. She also participates in seminars provided by Four Brick Court and has been a pupil supervisor (Middle Temple) since 2003.

Directories

'A lawyer with great forensic ability, Isabelle is detail-oriented and runs rings around witnesses if they try to lie. She is devastating in cross-examination in that context.'

'Wonderfully experienced and really very good in complex care cases. She asks questions in a simple, gentle manner, and is hugely effective in cross-examination.'

'She is approachable and gets on with clients and professionals alike.' Chambers UK 2025

'Isabelle is a silk in waiting. Her forensic skills are second to none. Her case preparation is extraordinary. She always knows every detail of a case. She is an iron fist in a velvet glove.' Legal 500 2024

'An iron fist in a velvet glove. She is meticulous, across all the detail in a case, forensic in her cross-examination and someone with a calm manner about her who's incredibly effective.'

'She pulls together all the strands in the case in such an impressive way, even when there are difficulties and numerous witnesses required to be called.'

'Her advocacy is phenomenal.'

'A seasoned professional who is intellectually very strong. She's appropriately collaborative with opponents when it comes to difficult cases.' Chambers UK 2024
