What our clients are saying

'Having been a children's lawyer for over 25 years, Judith Pepper is one of the stand out barristers I have instructed. She is always on top of the issues. Her attention to detail and forensic approach to the evidence is impressive. Her client care skills are exemplary and she shows compassion where it is needed. Judith is a highly effective advocate who puts her case across with great skill.' Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, Partner, IBB Solicitors (July 2019)

'Judith is reliable, thorough and goes above and beyond the call of duty for clients'. Jas Malhi, Principal Solicitor, Croydon Council (April 2019)

'Your thorough and methodical approach has made the case so much easier for the authority. I know that we have all felt in safe hands with you leading this case in court. It has been an emotional journey but we are absolutely delighted with the outcome'. Service Manager, Children Services (March 2019)

Expertise

Judith Pepper specialises in family law, primarily public law proceedings representing local authorities, parents and guardians, as well as other family members and intervenors. She is often instructed in complex care proceedings involving non-accidental injury and medical evidence, sexual abuse allegations, serious domestic violence, and placement outside the jurisdiction as well as cases involving vulnerable adults and forced marriage.

A large number of Judith's cases have involved parallel criminal proceedings. Her previous experience of practice in criminal law means that she has a knowledge of the issues involved in ongoing criminal investigations.

Judith also has extensive experience in all areas of private law family work, particularly those involving serious allegations of harm.

Judith utilises her considerable experience in care proceedings to good effect in Court of Protection work.

Judith approaches all her cases with an attention to detail and a straightforward manner. She undertakes all of her cases with a strong sense of professionalism.

Judith provides bespoke training to solicitors, local authority lawyers and social workers across a range of family law topics.
