'An absolute star.'

About

Nathan Baylis is known for his compassionate approach and meticulous preparation, consistently praised for his ability to put clients at ease and pinpoint key issues in complex cases. His practice focuses primarily on private and public children work, with a particular interest in cases involving an international element.

Nathan also accepts instructions in financial remedy disputes.

Practice overview

Nathan has built substantial experience in a variety of challenging areas, including:

- International and domestic relocation
- Surrogacy arrangements
- Domestic and sexual abuse
- Child abduction
- Non-accidental injuries
- Fabricated or induced illnesses
- Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) and Forced Marriage
- Intractable hostilities and parental alienation

Pro Bono Work

As Chambers' Pro Bono Champion for Advocate, Nathan is dedicated to supporting individuals who cannot afford legal representation. He actively collaborates with charities and organisations, and has worked closely with law clinics and domestic abuse charities throughout his legal studies and career, demonstrating his strong commitment to access to justice.
