Client Testimonials

'I have had the pleasure of working with Alastair Martey in relation to the needs of vulnerable children with special educational needs. Alastair Martey is extremely bright and determined. His excellent work for these clients has led to special educational needs being met and exclusion decisions being overturned. His insight into education law obligations was invaluable.' Karen May, John Ford Solicitors

'Alastair is a fearless Advocate who puts his client's case robustly. He has represented some of my most vulnerable clients, including an individual with severe special educational needs. Alastair has an excellent understanding of the law and was in full control of the case from beginning to end.' James Betts, Maxwell Gillot Solicitors
